Hendricks Ahead---Kentucky for Pendleton---The President's Amnesty.

NEW York, July 1.—Delegates to the Democratic Convention are still arriving. The Pendleton escort is expected this afternoon. Indications to-day seem to point to Chase or Hendricks. The New York delegation held a meeting at the St. Nicholas at noon, and informally resolved to support Seymour for President. It seems certain, however, that Seymour's name will not be pressed, as he personally don't desire the nomination. August Belmont was

The Ohio delegation to the Democratic Convention met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day, Thirty-five of the forty-two delegates were present. Entire harmony characterized the proceedings. Col. McCook was elected permanent chairman, and Morrison Foster, of Cleveland, Secretary. It was decided to hold daily meetings until the assemblage of the Convention.—Committee men will be selected tomorrow.

The meeting of the Kentucky delega-tion is postponed until to-morrow, ow-ing to the non-arrival of a large portion of the delegation.

Samuel J. Tilden was to-day chosen chairman of the New York delegation.

It is understood that Mr. Seymour stated to-day to some of the members of the delegation that he hed pladged of the delegation that he had pledged his honor not to be a candidate, and under no circumstances would he ac-

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—The steamer Ben-ton arrived at Leavenworth from the Upper Missouri on Monday, with a car-go of 10,000 buffalo robes, 8,000 wolf skins and a large number of deer, elk, antelope, beaver, mink and other skins, valued at $75,000. Buffalo is very plenty this season and all kinds of furs and peltries are better than ever before and peltries are better than ever before The Indians were still troublesome along the river, wreaking their ven-gence generally on wood choppers and wolf polsoners, who they say are driv-ing off their game. They do not disturb traders.
